Copies available Free from Captured Moment
212 Fleet Road, Fleet, Hampshire. GU51 4BY

The hunt begins and ends at Captured Moment.
Nearest Car Parks, Victoria Road and Gurkha Square

Participation in this activity is at your own risk. This is no more than a guided walk with clues. You will never have to enter private property or go anywhere you should not. Full details at www.fleethampshire.co.uk

Your Mission.

Your mission is to discover the captured moment in time. Find the answers to all of the clues. Each answer has one highlighted box. Take the highlighted letter or number from each answer and complete the final grid on the last page. When your mission is complete you will discover an amazing moment in World history.

A To get you started, at what number will you find a modern Captured Moment?

Need an extra clue? Go to www.fleethampshire.co.uk/th19/a change the final letter for each clue

Whilst facing the road turn left down Fleet Road. Continue for the next few clues.

B Where would you meet your French Cousin by the Clock Tower?

C Where was Churchill in 1939?

D Who claims to have been here since 1906?

E Near by, P&S. But what was the year?

Continue along the road past Sainsburys and walk left up Church Road to the Church

F You may be stumped by this clue, but you're looking for a man who died in August 1920
(Please stay safely on the path or paved areas!)

@Captured Moment 2019

Ahead of you is Church Road Car Park. Cross the Carpark and then through St. Nicholas Close. You will reach Branksomewood Road. Then turn Right up Branksomewood Road on this side:

G Don't go too far, your Branksome Walk will come to a lords house.

--	--	--	--	--	--	--	--	--	--

H Continue up the road on the same side and take a seat. Which "you" is above your head?

--	--

Back track a little until you see a path opposite, beside the Doctors. Take this path.

I How many lamp posts can you count between the cycle calming barriers?

When you reach Victoria Road turn right.

J Which house liked black and white check in 1873?

--	--	--	--	--	--	--	--

Continue up Victoria Road

K Can you find this post box?
Write the missing number in words
in the box below.

Continue up the road until you see a red postbox.
There is a path here, turn left down the path.
Go through a small metal gate at the end of the wall.

L What should we do when we "Rest a While"?

--	--	--	--	--	--	--	--

Then, sit and remember a possible relative of Harry.

--	--	--	--	--	--	--	--

Head out of the small gate at the other end and head down the hill, down the path.
At the road, which is a busy road, turn left and stay on this side of the road.
The next clue is between here and the pedestrian crossing.

©Captured Moment 2019

N Which tree is above "Beechwood"?

--	--	--	--	--	--

Cross the road at the pedestrian crossing.

O Can you find the map in the picture?

What activity is missing on our version of the map?

--	--	--	--	--	--

Cross back over the crossing and take the path straight ahead.

Go up the steps from the path, or take the slope, up to the play park.

P How many swings are in the park?

Q Count how many slides there are in the park.
Then add to that the number of bike rack bars just outside the park.

Leave the park and cross the road. Head to the left of the council offices.

R A commemorative tree can be found here. A small native American Tree, Cornus florida.
What is its common name?

--	--	--	--	--	--	--	--

Leave towards Fleet Road, turning into the Gurkha Square carpark where you will see the War Memorial.

S On the memorial two of those remembered have exactly the same name.
They have the same initials and surname.
What is the name of the person four below them?

--	--	--	--	--	--

T This next clue is probably our best one,
Can you see some faces looking down on you?
How many faces can you see? Answer in words not numbers.
